UNITEDHEALTH GROUP®

AGREEMENT TO REPAY RELOCATION EXPENSES

This Agreement is between (Name of Employee) ("I," "me" or "my") and UnitedHealth Group, Inc. ("UnitedHealth Group"). UnitedHealth Group and I agree:

My Effective Date of Relocation is (Date of transfer or hire) or the date the relocation authorization is initiated with UnitedHealth Group's relocation vendor (whichever date is later).

UnitedHealth Group will pay for or reimburse me for certain relocation expenses according to UnitedHealth Group's Relocation Policy ("Relocation Expenses").

If my employment is terminated within 24 months after my Effective Date of Relocation (a) voluntarily by me, or (b) by UnitedHealth Group for reasons that constitute a violation of UnitedHealth Group's Principles of Ethics and Integrity, I must repay to UnitedHealth Group a pro-rated portion of the relocation expenses based on the number of full months I was employed after my Effective Date of Relocation. For example, if my employment terminates six months following my Effective Date of Relocation, I agree to repay three-fourths of the relocation expenses.

To the extent permitted under applicable law, I authorize UnitedHealth Group to make deductions from my paychecks, or from any other amounts owed to me, for any amount that I owe UnitedHealth Group under this Agreement after I provide notice of my decision to terminate or after UnitedHealth Group has notified me of my termination.

If deductions from my paychecks or other amounts owed to me are insufficient to cover the relocation expenses that I owe, I agree to repay promptly the remaining amount due in response to UnitedHealth Group's written request. If I fail to do so, I will be liable for UnitedHealth Group's expenses incurred in connection with any legal action against me for collection, including attorneys' fees and court costs.
